Presidents Message

I want to extend a warm welcome to all of our guests and very valued dealers to our annual Lancopex event. This now being our clubs 76th year, it is pleasing to see all of the support we receive as well as the growing attendance each year. Stamp collecting is a very broad term that encompasses a large variety of interests and subject matter. It is fun and very rewarding, by far one of the oldest and most traditional hobbies of the past 150 plus years. Through it, great knowledge can be obtained relative to its historical and geographical significance. As for our club, the Philatelic Society of Lancaster County, it is a very active club with great interaction and highly informative monthly programs, and is very highly regarded within the American Philatelic Society National Organization. I am extremely proud to be this years president, and humbly serve in the shadows of very dedicated past presidents. It is a club anyone can be extremely proud to be associated with, and we welcome any and all interested individuals to join us, or at least come to one of our meetings to enjoy or gathering of dedicated collectors.

Thank you for attending and being a part of our annual celebration and event. I hope that for all who attend this year, we can welcome back again next year and for many years to come.
