“IN THE NEWS”

Switzerland adds an extra dimension to its Christmas Carols stamps

Swiss Post is taking this one step further by letting you hear the songs as well. The four stamps were issued Nov. 15. The new-issue announcement from Swiss Post said, “The stamp motifs drawn by Berne designer and musician Boris Pilleri not only set the Christmas mood visually, but also sound Christmassy: if you scan the stamps with the Post-App, you can watch a magical festive video whilst enjoying some atmospheric Christmas music.”

Note: The font I have used above is appropriately called Helvetica !!!

17th ANNUAL READING STAMP SHOW - REVISITED

The show held on November 4th was a resounding success: 125 visitors including 16 RSCC members and 9 PSLC Members. THE RSCC would like to thank all the club members who helped on the day: In particular we would like to thank the Lancaster Members, Paul, Lou and Doug who helped with the RSCC book and supplies table and the Stamp Center table. In particular we want to thank the three ladies Sandy, Lee and Barbara and Len from PSLC who helped in the Kitchen. If I have forgotten anyone, my apologies. Our dealers liked it so much many are signed up already for next year. Below are some memories of a great day.

Stan (RSCC) and Charles (PSLC) no doubt discussing Postal History

Dennis (PSLC) can't believe the price???
