January 20, 1992

Buy/sell 6 pm

With this 25th issue, The Lancaster County Postcard Club has a NEW NAME for its monthly communication. THE CARD will continue to meet the goals set by its predecessor, The Newsletter - TO INFORM its readers of current Club activities, TO DISPERSE information and history pertaining to postcards and TO ENTERTAIN through the medium we share - postcards.

The Newsletter in recent months has set a pattern. It has attempted to offer its readers a balance of these three goals - current news, postcard 'history' and pure 'looking pleasure'. And, obviously, 'Newsletter' didn't tell the whole story.

THE CARD gives our membership a broad spectrum of postcard collecting (and in its brevity takes up less room in type, thus allowing more room for pictures and copy).

It is for these reasons that THE CARD was chosen from among many entries submitted. Our THANKS to everyone who offered a possible new name. The winner was awarded a FREE DINNER, courtesy of the editor.

Members' suggestions, ads and original articles as well as items from other sources are encouraged and welcomed.

NEW MEMBERS

Finishing out our second year, we welcome these fine folks:

LOCAL CALENDAR POSTCARDS

Advertising postcards are a fascinating branch of collecting. Several local firms issued postcards with their ads PLUS a calendar which guaranteed at least one month's lifetime in the household. Of course, dyed-in-the-wool collectors had hopes of a long string of the business's postcards.

Below is a check-list of postcards seen with publishers and inclusive dates.

PORCH FURNITURE is now made in so many pretty designs which can be used within the house also that it seems a shame to postpone longer the purchase of a few pieces. Our showing of this class of furniture exhibits as great a range in price as in choice. We shall appreciate a call if only for inspection.

A POST CARD FROM THE PRESIDENT

HIGH HOPES FOR LCPC IN 1992

I've accepted the high post, president of the Lancaster County Postcard Club for 1992 with weak knees and a sense of inadequacy. However, when in a pinch, the adrenaline begins flowing and with that spurt of encouragement, I promise to do my best to meet your expectations. With an enthusiastic membership behind me, how can I even think of failure?

I do hope everyone will feel secure enough to give any pointers and suggestions that will benefit all of us. Program ideas and board topics are always welcome. Above all, I want the activities to be fun and educational - not stuffy and boring.

Here then is an uplifting toast to an invigorating year for you LCPC stalwarts! Happy collecting, trading and learning.

Dorathy V. Fry

WE DON'T WANT TO SAY "GOOD-BYE"

With postage costs so high, this could be your only free newsletter - The Card. If you haven't sent in your $7 dues for 1992, please do. ($10 per family-same address.)

To: LCPC, P.O. Box 300, Lititz PA, 17543-0300.

All good
Wishes for a happy
New Year

CHIMNEY SWEEPS

Chimneys first came into use in the 12th century. This soon gave rise to a new kind of worker - the chimney sweep. Their costume was a black tailcoat and a top hat, often acquired from undertakers. This continues to be their trademark. According to superstition their top hat kept them from falling off the roof. A ladder, metal scraper and brush with long winding handle were tools of the trade.

Earlier chimneys were large and men using their elbows and knees could climb up in them. Later, as chimneys got smaller, the sweeps apprenticed small boys for the cleaning. Little girls were even used to clean chimneys as small as 6"x14"! The children were often foundlings or discards from families that couldn't afford to rear them.

Unknown foreign publisher - M.S.i.B. #13558 ("E" on sailing ship w/beacon light). 1907

YOU CAN STILL BE A PEPSI FAN

But don't miss the set of five 4x6" PCs of Santa issued by Coke at participating Burger Kings. To honor the 60th anniversary of the late Haddon Sundblom's first renditions in 1931, there are five different full-color Santas. Attached are K-Mart/Kodak Colorwatch tear-off coupons.

German laws once required chimneys to be cleaned at least twice a year; today, at least once a year. As with many professions today, the sweep is called a "technological sweeper", a "fluonomist" or a "monitor of the environment". They wear white uniforms and have trucks with special vacuum cleaners.

In many places chimney sweeps were associated with good luck. Their kiss or handshake brought good luck to newly weds. And so they are mostly found on New Year postcards with other good luck symbols - pigs, money and four-leaf clovers. They often appear in little black caps and black clothing; more often on foreign postcards.

Housewives made certain their chimneys were cleaned at the beginning of the New Year and had the sweeps clean their slate roofs at the same time. They wanted to start the New Year with a clean slate.

CHRISTMAS MEETING=FINE FELLOWSHIP!

It was 5 pm. Presidential Family Helen and Earl Carver were already heating coffee and setting up tables at the Mountville Methodist Church. They were soon assisted by the Steinbergs, the Frys, the Moyers, the Heims, the Mowrers and more.

"A bad flu season could account for a poor turn-out" Chairlady Anne Steinberg predicted. She had received word from several families that were hit by an early winter bout of colds. But as it turned out 53 members and their families sat down at 6:35 pm to fine Lancaster County covered-dish cooking. And the desserts seemed endless!

The Mountville Brownies charmed us with a few carols. (They gave up the room to us.) Our regular meeting space would never have handled the necessary tables.

A special THANK YOU to Bud Heim for his donation to the LCPC: a beautiful oak gavel and block which were turned over to 1992's President Dorathy Fry. And an added THANKS to Harold Moyer for toting the projector, screen and exhibit easel (separate story).

Earl and Jim's photo albums, two years of Club newsletters, Club postcards and 1991 calendars filled one table.

Don Brown's illustrated talk and postcard boards followed a short business meeting. But certainly the highlight was the White Elephant Auction.

Enthusiastic Earl began the auctioneering of a table full of donated items. Then the Inimitable Howard continued with purely unpredictable parlance that not only had the crowd 'in stitches' but goaded it into paying fine prices for an array of objects:

Ceramic, glass, wooden and sewed,
Painted, polished, knitted and bowed.
Animals, necklaces, vases and plants,
Potpourri burners, and wreaths -

You could tell at a glance
Some were new-bought, some rediscovered
(None falling apart)

These were gifts for our club,
Gifts from the heart!

An afghan, a whale, puzzles and door mat
Sun catchers, musical teddys

A potato masher - think of that!
Beeswax Santas, candy canes
Hammered tray and laugh book
Tiny trinkets, greeting cards -
If you just took a look.

And all for a reason upon which we agree
To keep us together - the LCPC!

Tagged gifts were from Polly Curtis, Mary Darrenkamp, Sally Danz, Nancy Gambler, Barb and Bud Heim, Bernie Heisey, John Hornberger, Rich Kestenbaum, Ruth and Harry Lines, Ruth and Harold Moyer, Barb and Walt Mowrer, Lorraine Singer, Anne Steinberg, Martha Stoner, Bob Treisch, Jim Ward, Santa and many others unsigned for a total of 46 gifts and $179! A BIG THANK YOU to all the buyers and donors and apologies to any one whose name may have been omitted.

Thanks also to Barb, Walt and Jim for their auction help.

Publ. by Stecher, series 56C. Used 1914.

THE FOLLOWING COMPRISE THE ESTATE POSTCARDS OF ALMA ALTHOUSE, MEMBER #53
Mr. Althouse has asked us to make up lots, sell and give net receipts to The American Cancer Society. Which we shall do.

To expedite this job (six shoe boxes full) some lots may not be precisely counted. The majority are chromes and linens, but there are a number of good old cards, too. In case the Auction Comm. over-looked any 'goodies' in order to make the mailing deadline, you should examine all lots carefully!
Continentials exist frequently in many lots. Most lots have used and unused.
