THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I would like to welcome all of you to the Lancaster County Philatelic Society's 1999 Stamp Show. We are a 50+ member group of stamp collectors who have just completed our 60th year of continuous operation. We meet throughout the year on the second Wednesday of the month at the Lancaster Township Community Building located on Columbia Avenue. All are welcome to visit one of our meetings and new members are especially welcome. For additional information about our club, feel free to speak to any of our members at the hospitality table.

I invite you to inspect our exhibits and please take time to vote for your preference. The exhibits come from our club members and from members of other area clubs.

We have 21 stamp dealers present which offer a variety of philatelic material for both the beginner and advanced collector. For the young collector we also have a youth table that offers free stamps and other materials - be sure to stop by.

Enjoy your visit to our show.

HOUSE FOR THE POOR AND EMPLOYMENT
Lancaster County Hospital

In colonial times the elderly, sick, and mentally ill were cared for by their families. Hospitals (or facilities for the care of those not able to do so themselves) were unknown. The oldest hospital in the United States is Pennsylvania Hospital in Philadelphia built in 1749, 50 years before the House for the Poor and Employment in Lancaster, Pa. Addressing a need, the Pennsylvania State Legislature in 1797 passed an act that allowed for the building of the House for the Poor and Employment of Lancaster county. The directors purchased 89 acres of land east of Lancaster and approved the plans of Hensel and Brungard for a Georgian style building located where we now designate 900 East King Street. The design followed that used for similar type buildings constructed in that time period in Philadelphia and Williamsburg, Virginia. Construction was completed in 1801 and the hiring of a physician, steward, and matron to supervise the residents allowed the House of the Poor and Employment to be designated a hospital. Records show that by 1809 there were 28 men, 20 women, and 3 children living in the stone building. Behind the hospital was a farm and the able-bodied were expected to work for their keep. The crops were hemp, flax, hay, grain, milk, and vegetables. There was also a stone quarry (the stone used to construct the original building was quarried on the property). The hospital was the gathering place for the homeless, elderly, sick, poor, and mentally ill. Residents were expected to help with the daily chores, cooking, and cleaning. There was a washhouse and a bakery on the premises. A self-sufficient community. As the years passed other buildings were added or replaced as needed and the residents relocated as needs changed.

Today Conestoga View, which was dedicated in August 1969, fulfills the need of Lancaster county residents for a home for the elderly. The other buildings were razed and the farm abandoned upon the construction of the modern 8-story Conestoga View. Only the original sturdy building from 1799 remains and has been in constant use by the county in one capacity or another for 200 years. It now houses the Lancaster County Children and Youth Social Service Agency.

In April 1986 a sign erected on the property honored the almost 200 years of service to the homeless, poor, and elderly of Lancaster county. The inscription read
