

September 26, 1938

The regular meeting of the Lancaster Stamp Club was held on the above date at the Y.M.C.A. with 12 members present. The treasurers report was accepted.

Discussion of the James Buchanan First Day from Lancaster was decided to be dropped, due to lack of interest; too late for advertising; and not wishing to go in the red.

A brief discussion of the A.P.S. dinner was given. The meeting then adjourned and auction followed.
