THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

On behalf of the Lancaster County Philatelic Society (LCPS), I welcome you to LANCOPEX 2000, our 15th Annual Stamp Show and Exhibition. There is something here for every stamp collector. We have 20 dealers willing to cater to your every need, and we encourage children to visit our youth table where they may rummage through piles of stamps for free samples. The U.S. Post Office is represented with all kinds of current U.S. stamps for sale. And you simply must review the exhibits: local stamp collectors took many hours researching and assembling their philatelic specialties. If the exhibits are anything like those in previous years, I am sure you will be impressed, whether you are a lifetime collector or a casual observer.

Last, but not least, stop by the LCPS courtesy table to find out about our club. Pick up a complimentary copy of our newsletter and feel free to ask questions about our club or stamp collecting in general. Various show cachets commemorating the show are available for a small fee.

It took many hands to put together this show; and I thank all of them: the exhibitors, judges, dealers, all the members and friends of LCPS who helped with set-up and teardown of the show. And, most of all, I thank YOU, the visitor, for attending LANCOPEX 2000.

PETER BILLIS
