

Fathers and Sons

Baseball players' postcards to their fans

A PSLC Show and Tell Presentation

By Scott Ney

Roy Smalley Jr. and Roy
Smalley III

Roy Smalley Jr.

June 9, 1926 – October 22, 2011

Roy Smalley III

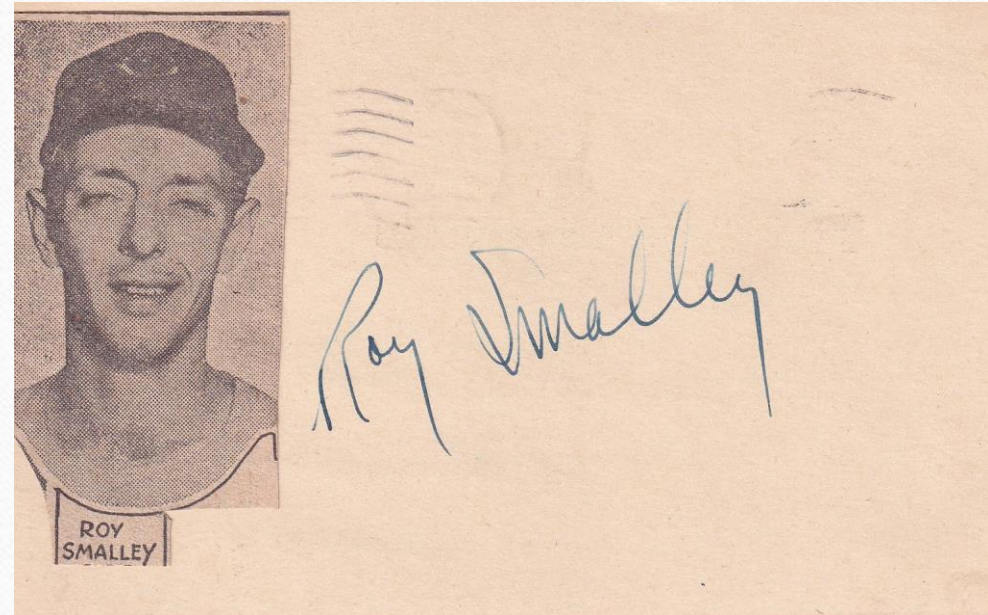

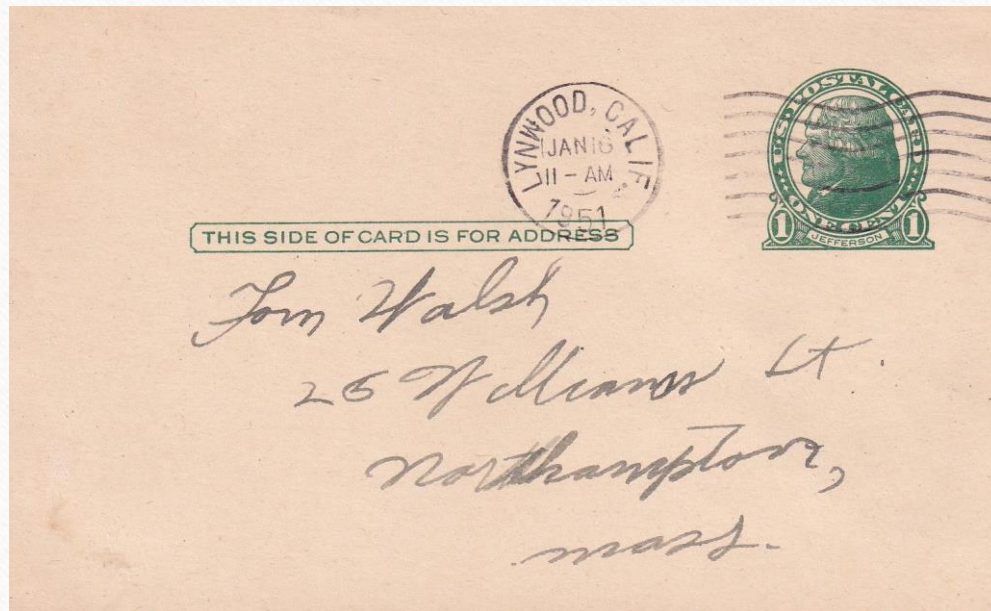

October 25, 1952

Roy Smalley Jr.

ML Debut: April 20, 1948

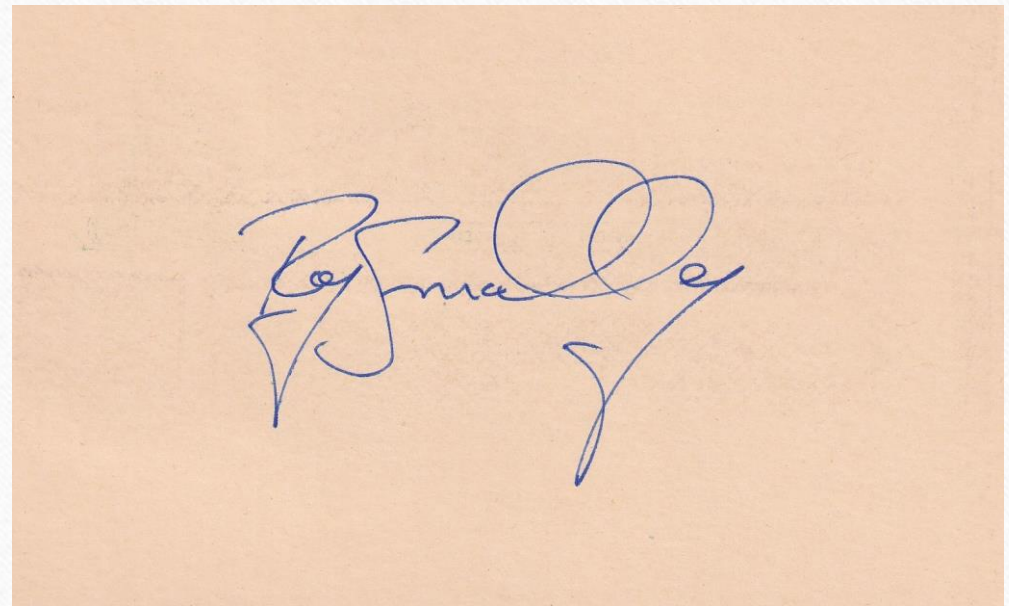

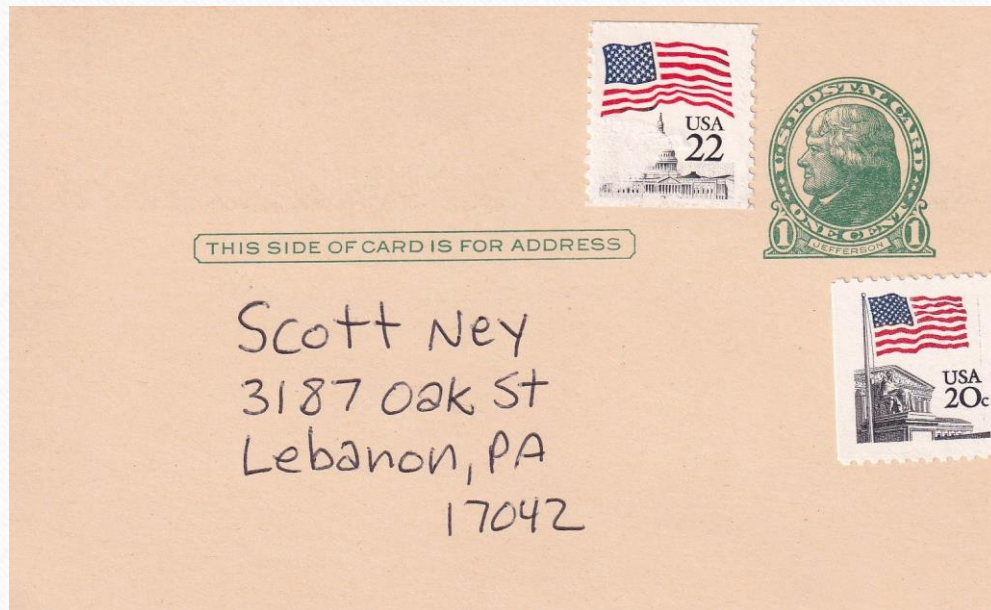

Final Game: April 21, 1958

Roy Smalley III

ML Debut: April 30, 1975

Final Game: October 4, 1987

Bob and Terry Kennedy

Bob Kennedy

August 18, 1920 – April 7, 2005

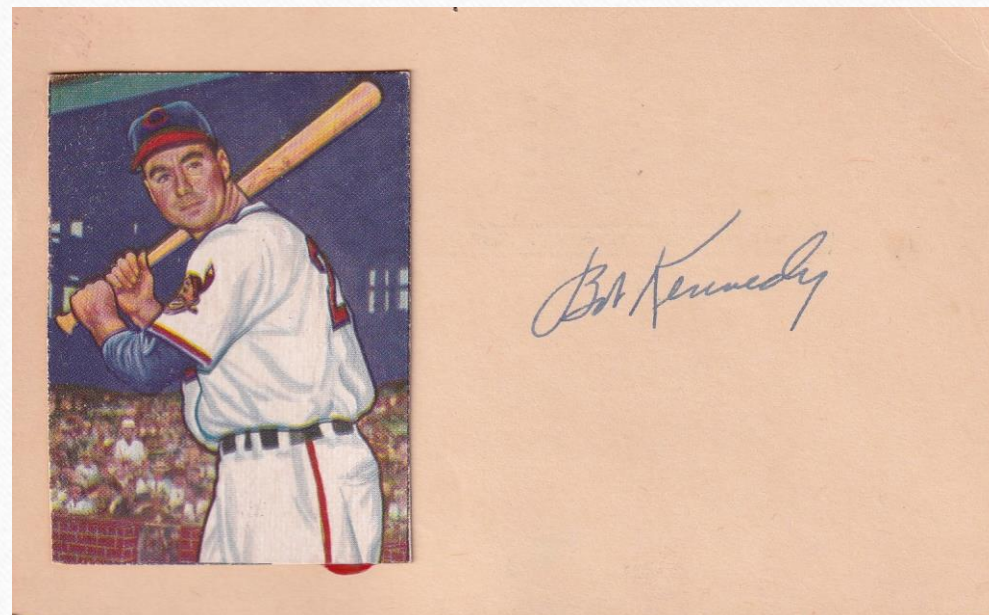

Terry Kennedy

June 4, 1956

Bob Kennedy

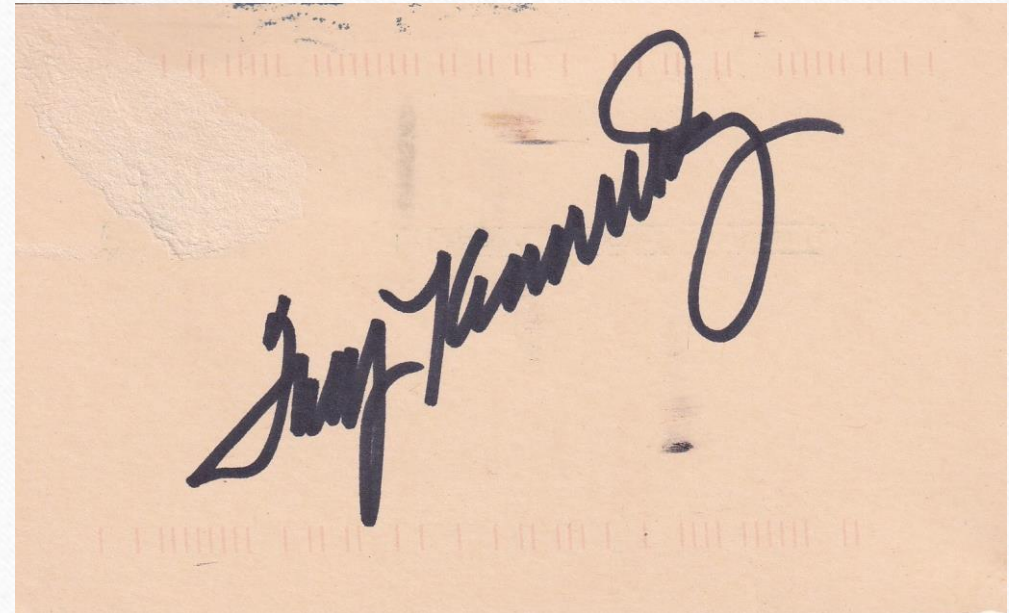

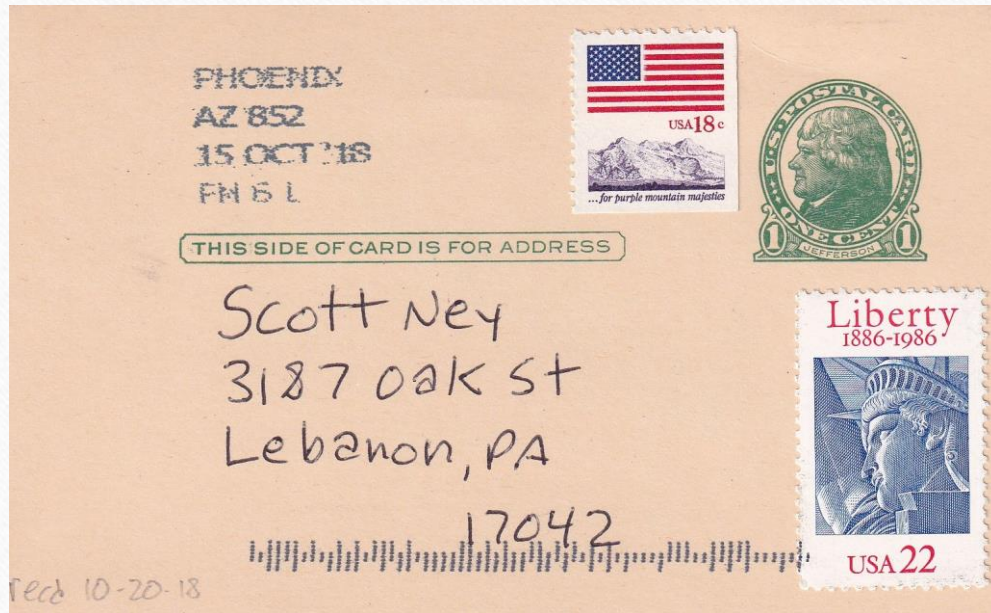

ML Debut: September 14, 1939 Final Game: September 29, 1957

Terry Kennedy

ML Debut: September 4, 1978

Final Game: October 6, 1991

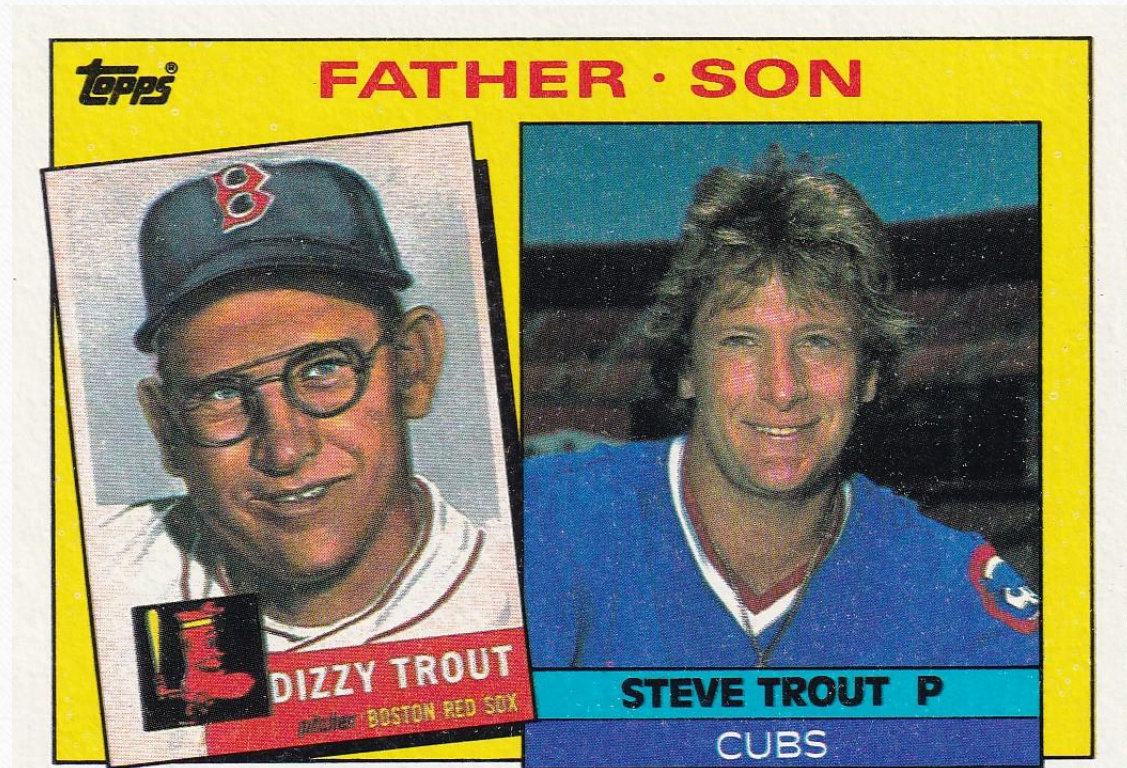

Dizzy and Steve Trout

Paul “Dizzy” Trout

June 29, 1915 – February 28, 1972

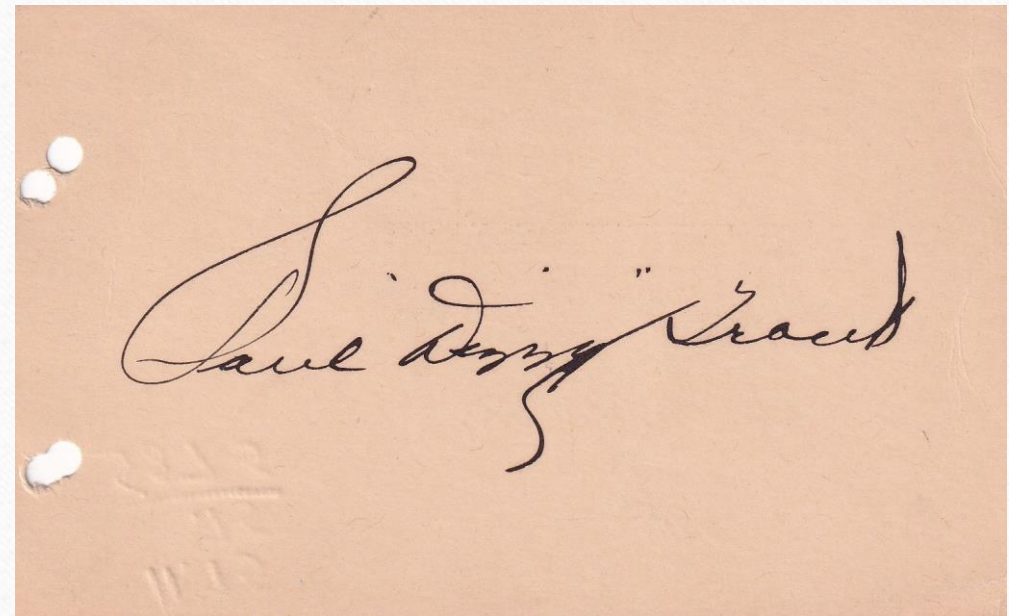

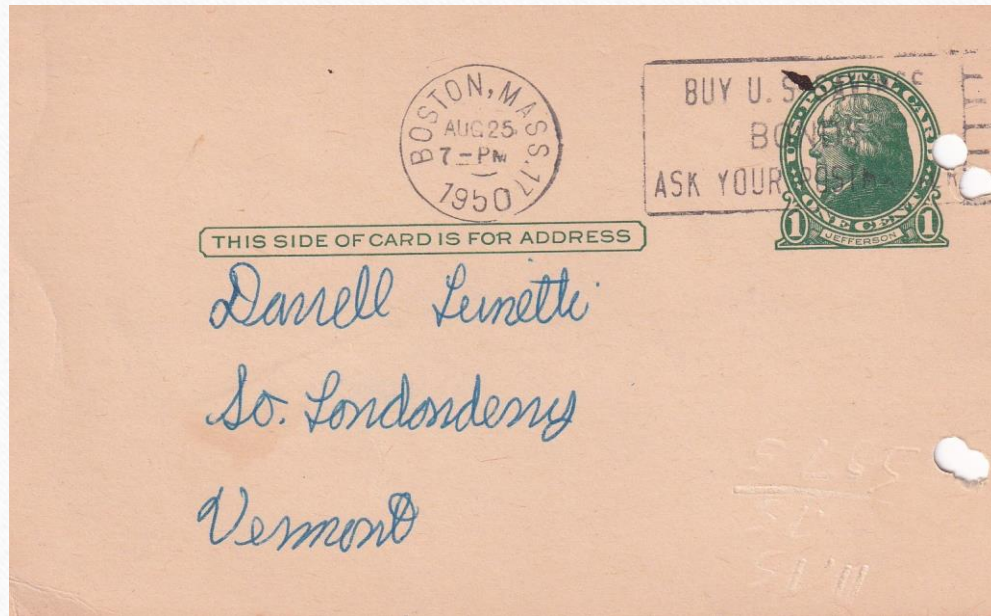

Steve “Rainbow” Trout

July 30, 1957

Paul "Dizzy" Trout

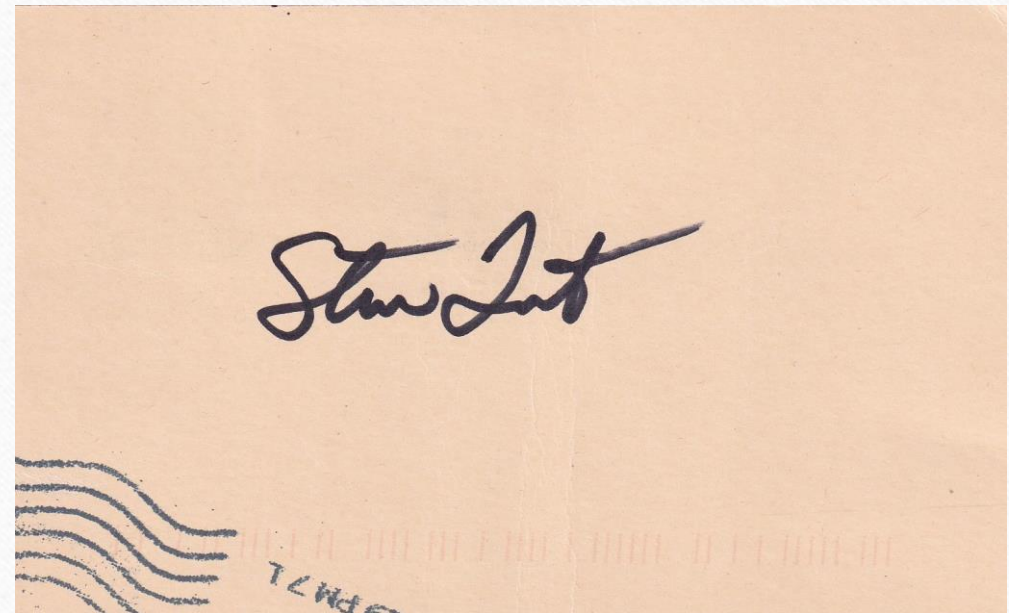

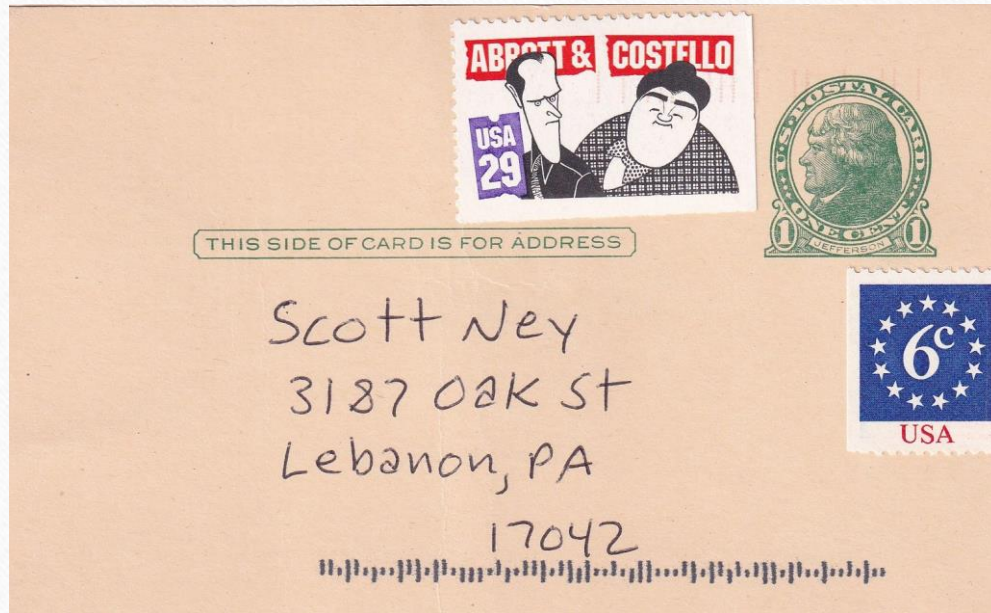

ML Debut: April 25, 1939 Final Game: September 11, 1957

Steve Trout

ML Debut: July 1, 1978

Final Game: June 5, 1989

Vern and Vance Law

Vernon Law

March 20, 1930

Vance Law

October 1, 1956

Forbes Field in Pittsburgh, with the Cathedral of Learning over
Law's right shoulder

A portion of the outfield wall still stands next to the business school building on the University of Pittsburgh campus

Home plate from the final game at Forbes
Field is located in Posvar Hall (formerly the Forbes Quadrangle)

The Hillman Library can be seen next to
Forbes Field on late pictures

Vern Law

ML Debut: June 11, 1950

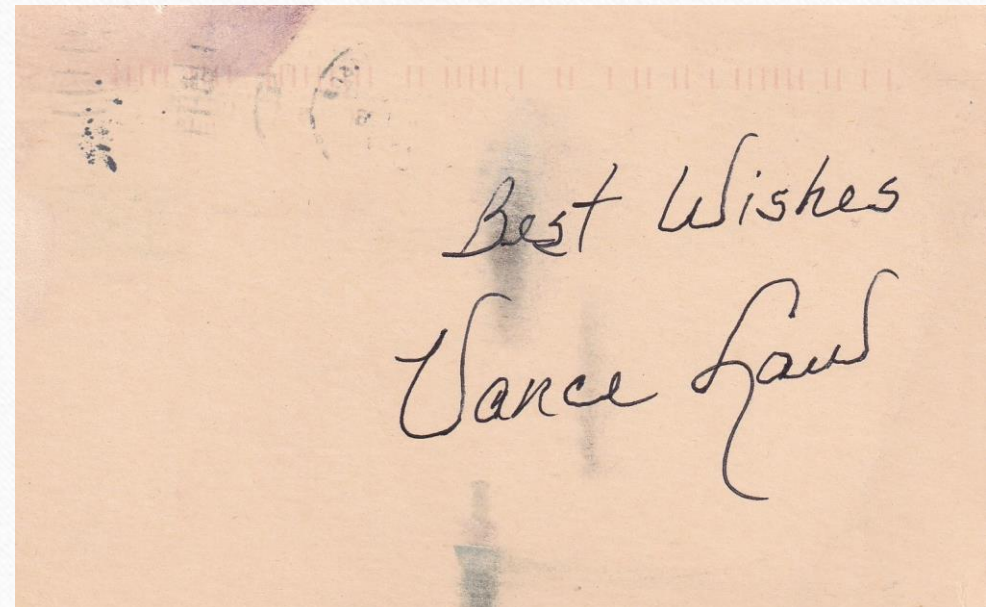

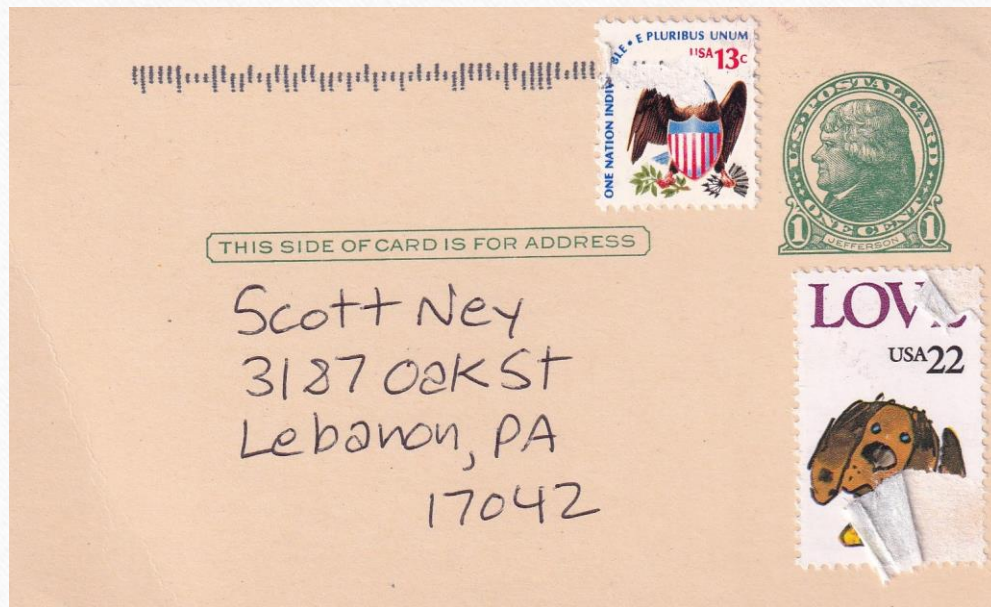

Final Game: August 20, 1967

Vance Law

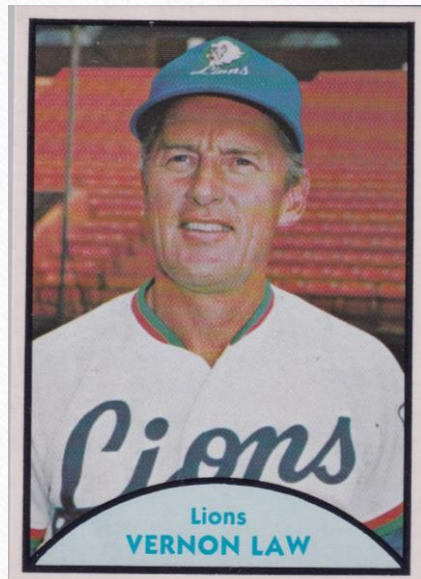

ML Debut: June 1, 1980

Final Game: October 6, 1991

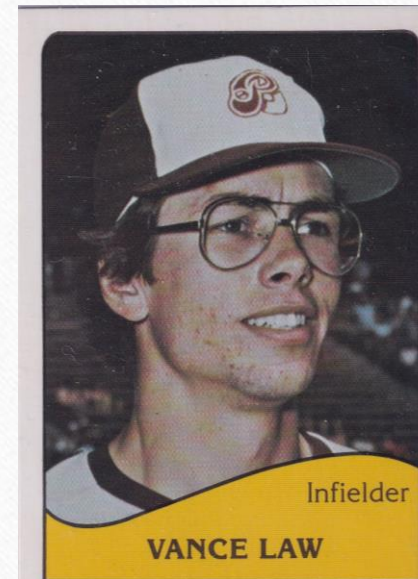

The Law Family in 1979

Vern was a coach for the Seibu
Lions in Japan

Vance was a prospect in the Pirates organization

Vance Law, Rookie

In 1980, Vance played 96 games for the Portland Beavers in the Pacific Coast League, and 25 games for the big club in Pittsburgh

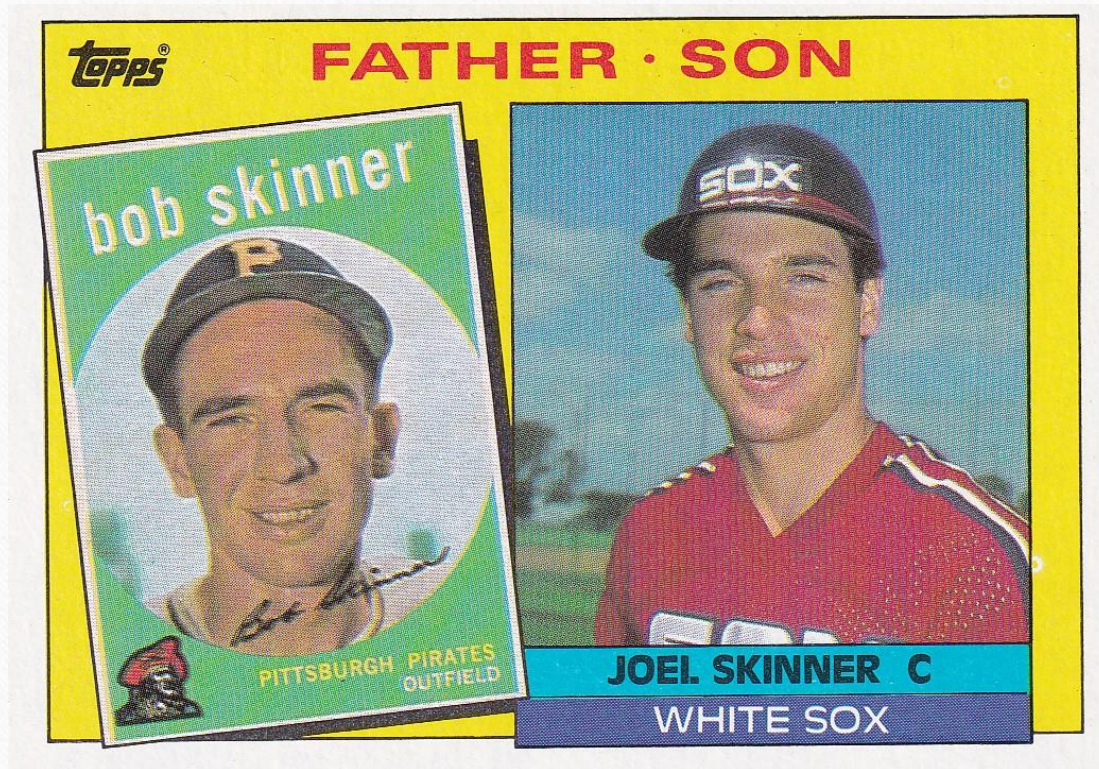

Bob and Joel Skinner

Bob Skinner

October 3, 1931

Joel Skinner

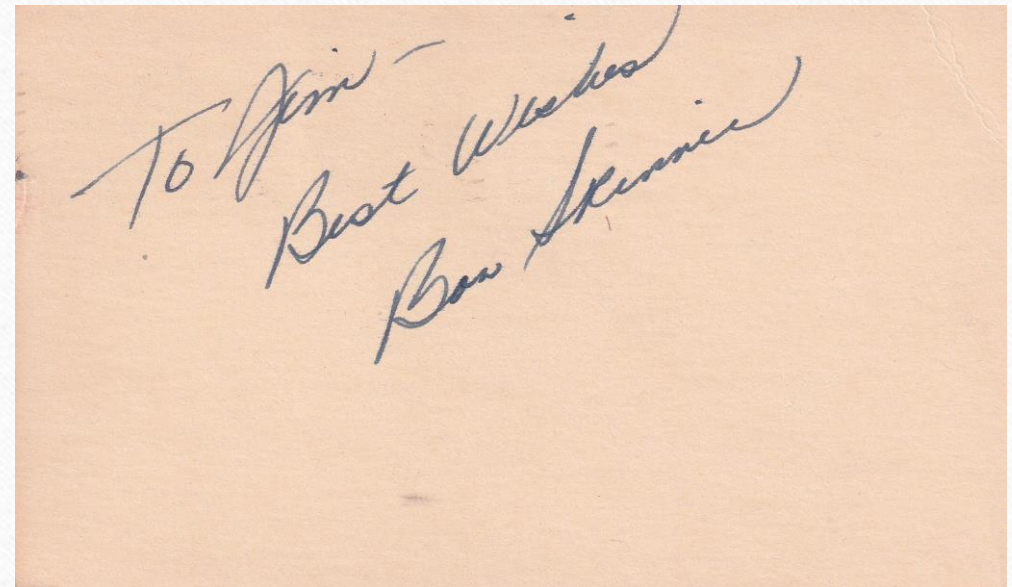

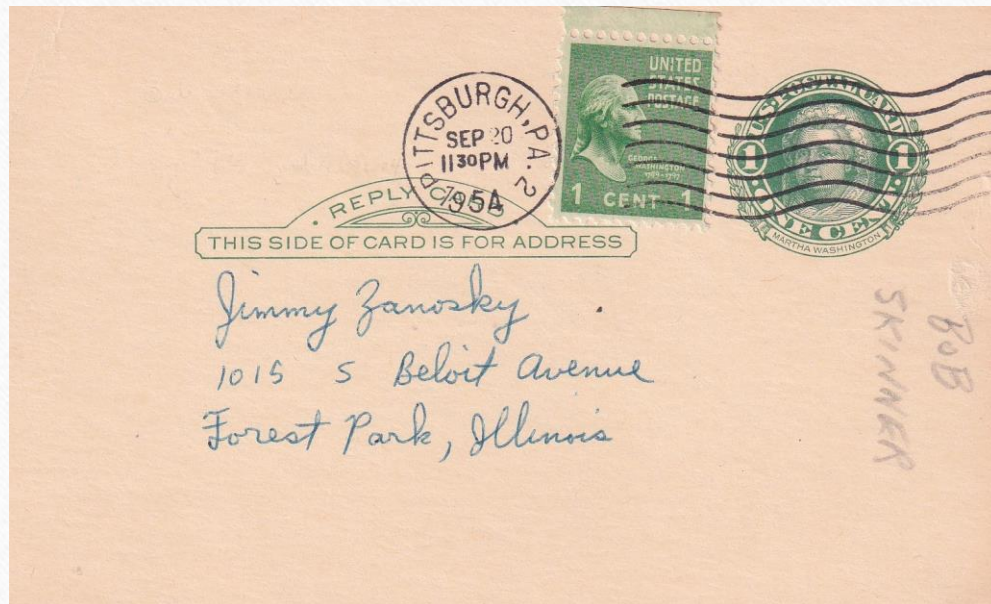

February 21, 1961

Bob Skinner

ML Debut: April 13, 1954

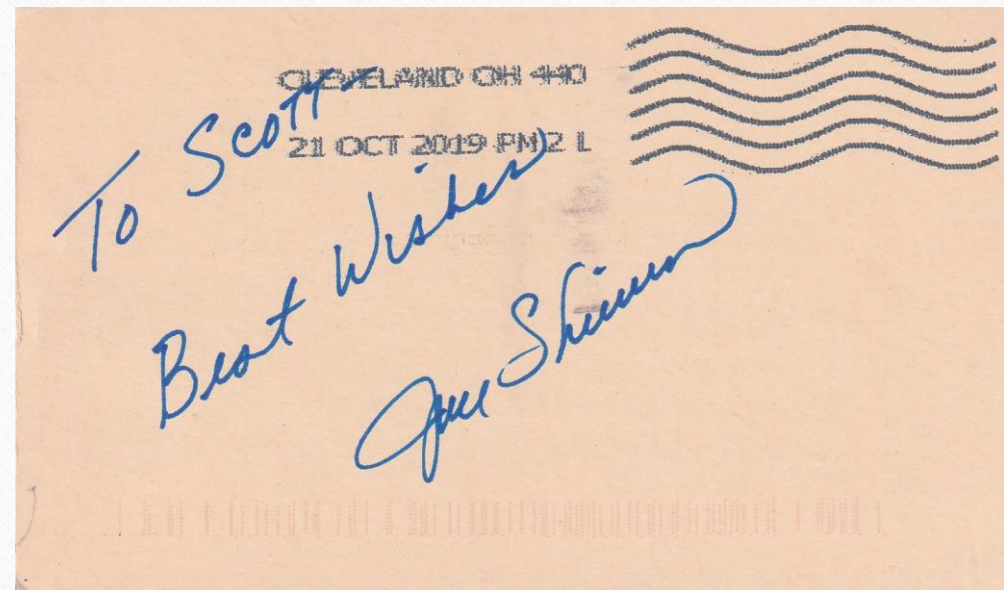

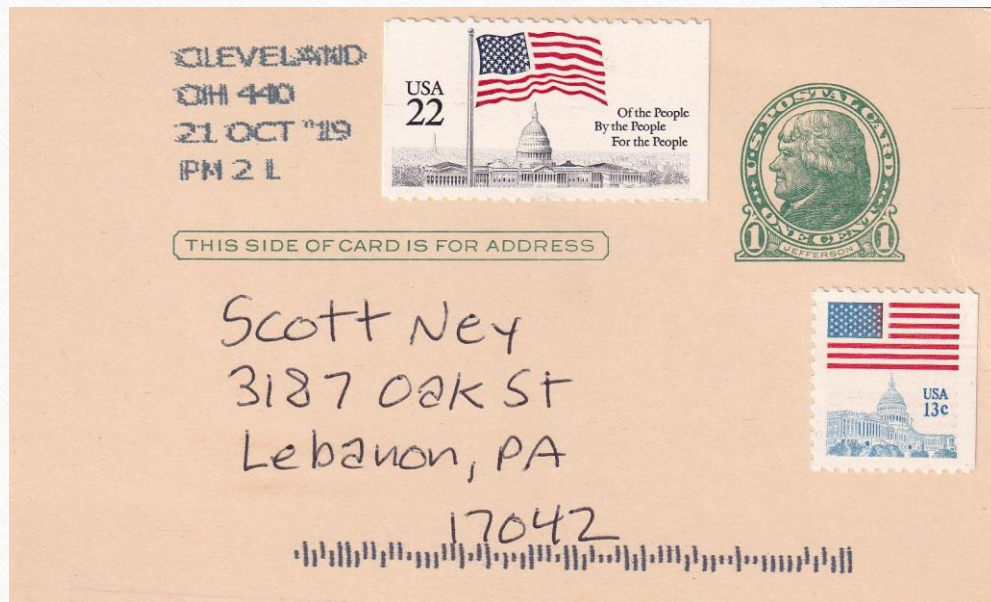

Final Game: September 24, 1966

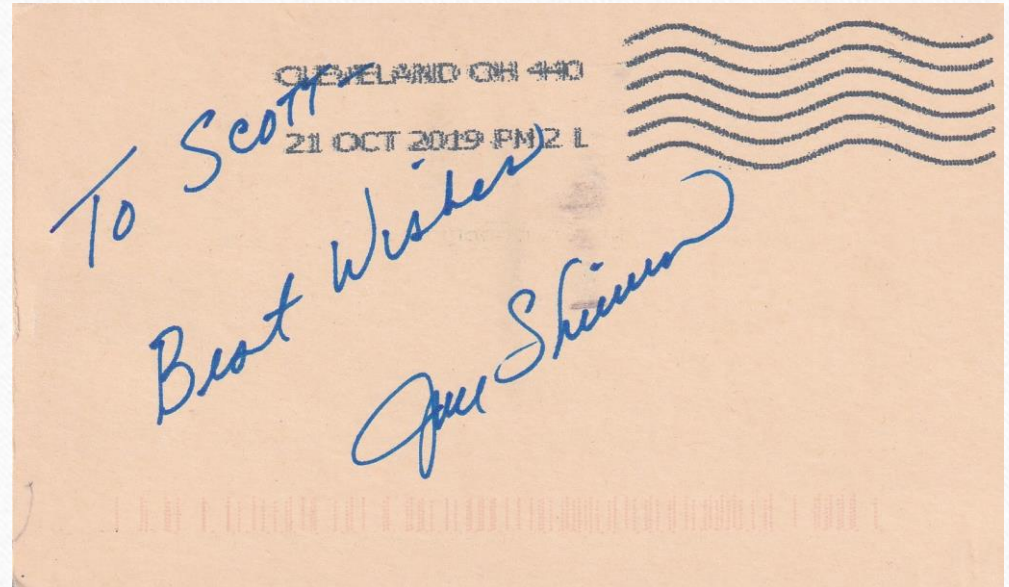

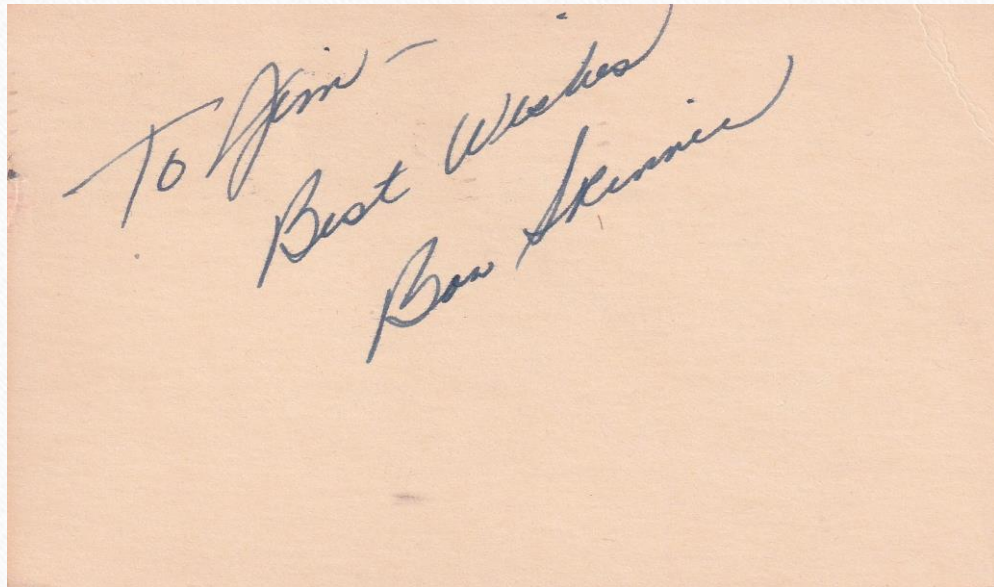

Joel Skinner

ML Debut: June 12, 1983

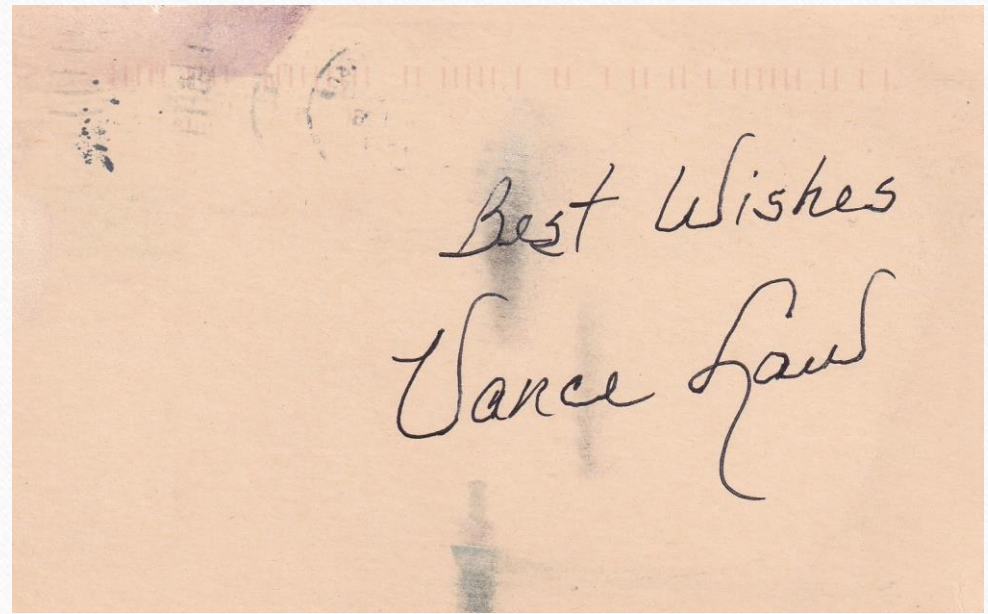

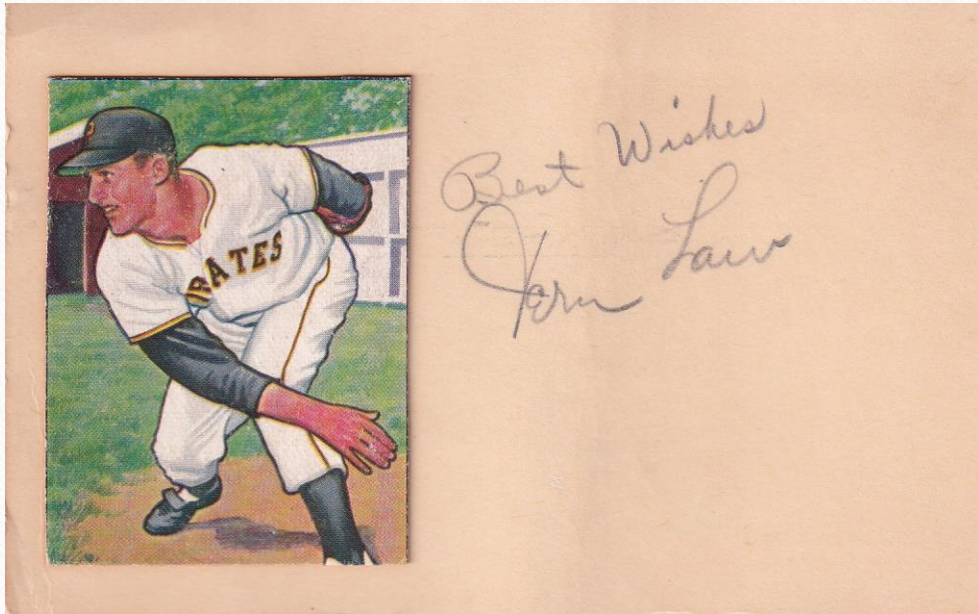

Final Game: September 22, 1991

Like father, like son

A chip off the old block

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY!

Baseball is continuous, like nothing else among American things, an endless game of repeated summers, joining the long generations of all the fathers and all the sons.

— Donald Hall —

AZ QUOTES