PRESIDENT'S COLUMN

I'm looking forward to Mike Sigman's talk about Rawlinsville Camp Meeting. I collect southern Lancaster County and have a few Rawlinsville Camp Meeting cards. I sure I'll see postcards I have not seen. It's also great to see a new Club member getting involved.

It's that time again, yes it's fall but it's also time for the Club to develop a slate of officers and Board of directors. I have served as President for two years this term and am not continuing as President next year. We do need you as a Club member for the officers and directors positions, please consider volunteering for this.

OCTOBER PROGRAM

Rawlinsville Camp Meeting!

Established in 1886 in the southern Lancaster County village of Rawlinsville, this Methodist camp meeting continues to thrive today as it welcomes the 6th and 7th generation of camp meeting attendees. Through the decades, several post card series were produced along with many real photo cards of the camp's historic buildings and long gone tent community. Mike Sigman has served as the camp meeting's Spiritual Director since 1995 and Bible teacher since 1990. The program will feature camp meeting post cards along with current photos of those 100+ year old post card scenes.

PRACTICAL JOKES

By Jim Ward

We're talking about pranks. They're lighthearted and without lasting effects. They make the victim feel a bit humble or foolish. Old postcards abound with them. These are NOT hoaxes or tricks that are cruel. Such were not found in the Good Olde Golden Days of PCs.

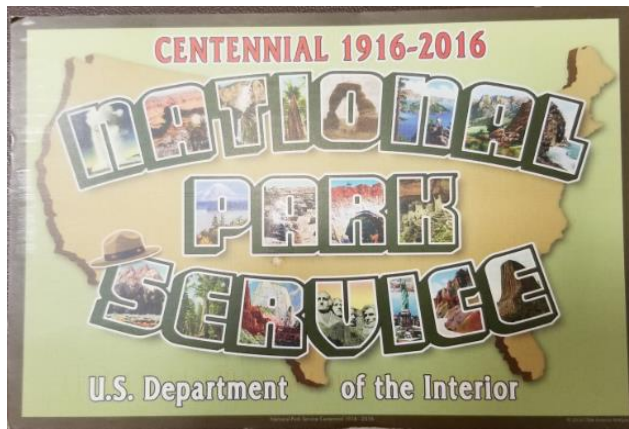

In our neighborhood a Halloween never passed that someone (a boy who wasn't afraid to climb) would scale a telephone/utility pole just high enough that all the backyard neighbors could see it was the neighborhood crank's wire gate that held the highest honor until he was forced to take it down himself.

The dwarf and Powerful Katrinka were Toonerville's "best buddies." More often than not they could be seen solving problems for The Skipper and his trolley.
