OCTOBER MEETING

The October meeting of the Lancaster County Postcard Club was held at the Farm & Home Center on October 16, 2023 with the President, Susan Glass, presiding.

22 persons attended. Susan opened the meeting with the poem, Merry Autumn Days by Charles Dickens. Following the pledge of allegiance to the flag, the secretary's and treasurer's reports were read and approved. The treasurer's report shows a balance is $4,013.43.

The door prizes were won by Dale Shaub and Brian Frankhouser. 50-50 prize was won by Betty Beck.

President Susan Glass announced that election of officers will be coming up in January. She also requested suggestions and articles for next month's newsletter.

A motion was made by Brian Frankhouser that the 4 officers of President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer be exempt from paying yearly dues starting in 2024. This motion was seconded by Don Wert and Gisela Withers and approved by the membership present.

A very interesting program "The Glass Flowers at Harvard" was presented by Betty Beck.

Respectfully submitted,
Jeanne Schopf, Secretary

PRESIDENT'S COLUMN20

Poor Thanksgiving, it almost gets overlooked in the rush to get ready for Christmas. Some people already have their outside decorations lit and I saw a lighted tree inside a neighbor's house. I sure hope it is artificial!

I am still looking for volunteers to hold an office or to serve on the board for 2024. We will continue discussion about this at the meeting. Another opportunity would be to give a program next year. At the meeting we will discuss competition subjects for 2024. Maybe there is a subject we haven't done that you would like. If that's the case send me an email (sfg47@comcast.net) or tell me at the meeting.

I wish you all a blessed Thanksgiving. Susan

FUTURE SHOWS

November 24-25 – Lancaster Fall Post Card Show. Farm & Home Center, 1381 Arcadia Road, Lancaster, PA, Friday 10-5, Saturday 9-5, Admission $2.50

NOVEMBER PROGRAM

Pam Tronsor will talk about the images of women used in WW1 postcards, posters, and sheet music. At the time they were produced, these images sought to enlarge women's views of their responsibilities in the time of war. They also served as powerful recruiting tools for both men and women.

Keller office at 717-879-0110 for an alternate appointment. We welcome you to attend a preview and the live auction to see these great cards.

POSTCARD SALE – NOVEMBER MEETING

At the October meeting, the club was gifted with a substantial grouping of postcards from a former dealer-collector. Almost all the cards are sleeved, with prices marked mostly from $1-5. These cards will be for sale at the November meeting, with all proceeds benefiting LCPC, at the reduced price of 50c each. The four boxes of postcards will be available on one of the dealer sales tables with a self service payment container. First come-first served; while there are no local Lancaster area views, there are many US (sorted by state) and foreign views, and some topical cards as well.

THANKSGIVING MESSAGES

← Edwin, Wishing you a Happy Thanksgiving, Mary

Dear Lizzie, I wish you a Thanksgiving greetings and I hope that the turkey will taste good. For I will not have no turkey. I am going to have a duck for me and mother. I think that is good enough for us because mother does not eat much meat so I would not buy us a turkey. Think of me when you eat your turkey. Goodby Dearest. From George

Dear Brother and all, Wish you all Thanksgiving Blessings and good health. We are all quite well again. It is so dry and cold here, they have the corn all husked. Your brother John (sent from Michigan to Ohio in 1924)

Vera, I hope this day will bring you happiness, be sure to eat plenty. Charlie
