JUNE MEETING

After the Pledge of Allegiance, President Susan Glass held a quiz on the origins of Father's Day. President Calvin Coolidge made it official in 1924.

The secretary's minutes were approved as read. The treasurer's report showed a balance of $1,279.73. There was a discussion about the financial status of the club, and it was agreed to keep an eye on the deposits and expenditures.

Membership: It was reported that there are 57 LCPC members so far this year.

LCPC Expo: The number of dealers scheduled for the Expo is down this year.

On July 20, there is a club picnic at Barb Mowrer's. Club members may come after 2:00 p.m. Food will be served at 4:00. The competition will be "Fireworks."

The 50/50 of $11 was won by Susan Glass. Door prize vouchers went to Donna Bashaw and Jere Long.

Tonight's program featured members sharing cards about vacations:

Brian Frankhouser - his family cabin and the Turkey Farm. Cheryl Edwards - her trip to New Brunswick, Canada. Ruth Frankhouser - Rehoboth Beach. Kerry Mohn – Baseball Hall of Fame (the induction ceremony for Whitey Ford and Mickey Mantle). Susan Glass - the Grand Canyon.

After the program concluded, the meeting was adjourned.
